Istighfar: Seeking Forgiveness from Allah

Source : Islamic Bulletin

"Truly, Allah loves those who repent, and He loves those who cleanse themselves." [al-Baqarah 2:222]

"O Allah! Make me among those who, when they commit an act of virtue, feel good, and when they commit a mistake, they seek forgiveness." [Ibn Majah]

Tawbah (repentance) and Istighfar (seeking forgiveness from Allah) are among the most meritorious acts of virtue for the believers. Tawbah means feeling remorse for our actions or omissions. Istighfar means expressing that remorse in words and begging Allah for forgiveness.

The act for which we perform tawbah and istightar is not necessarily a sin, or an act of disobedience to Allah; it also includes our shortcomings. As we realize Allah's immense favors to us, all of our thankfulness and devotion clearly appears to be inadequate. As we realize the grandeur of Allah, Most High, our acts of worship and obedience clearly are seen to be insufficient. The higher a person is on the scale of taqwa, piety and God consciousness, the greater is this sense of inadequacy. Consequently the greater is his/her practice of istightar.

That is why all the Prophets (as) preached and practiced tawbah and istightar. We do not have to invent any sins, inherited or personal, to explain their repentance. In fact all the prophets were free of sin, as Allah appointed them as role models for humanity and Allah did not send defective role models.

The leader of all the prophets was Prophet Muhammad (saw) a fact which was also symbolized in his leading of all the prophets in Salah (prayer) in Jerusalem during Isra'. And what did the prayer leader of the prophets use to do after every prayer? He used to say astaghfirullah (I seek Allah's forgiveness) three times! This is the istightar that comes out of the highest level of God consciousness! He taught us to perform istightar profusely, as he himself practiced. The Companions have reported that he used to do istightar hundreds of times during the course of a day.

Istighfar is also a means of enhancing that consciousness of Allah and strengthening our relationship with Him. We turn to no one except Allah in repentance. We confess our deepest errors, shortcomings, failures, and sins to Him and Him alone. In contrast, Christianity made a fatal mistake when it instituted confession to priests. As Martin Luther (1537) observed, "What torture, rascality, and idolatry such confession has produced is more than can be related". We seek His forgiveness, knowing that He alone has knowledge about all our deeds and thoughts and He alone can forgive us and save us from the consequences of our actions. Istighfar, thus, is a most intimate conversation with Allah. And during that conversation we are at our humblest. We can see why tawbah and istighfar are the essence of our servitude and submission to Allah!

We need istightar to constantly purify and cleanse our heart. We are not born in sin, but we are born in weakness. We are prone to fall prey to the many temptations that are part of our test in this life. And when we do fall and commit a sin, it produces a dark spot in our heart. A famous hadith, reported by Abu Huraira (ra) describes this process. When a person shows remorse and repents, that dark spot is removed. Otherwise it will stay there and grow with each additional sin. A time may come when his heart is full of darkness because of un-repented sins. We can see this gradual darkness of the heart as people advance in their sinful behavior. In the beginning they have a lot of inhibitions. They commit the wrong hesitatingly and feel bad about it. If they do not turn back, they get used to it, so it just feels normal. Then a stage comes when vice becomes virtue and virtue vice. They defend and advocate evil and shun good.

Today, unfortunately, we see so many examples of this all around us. In the "everything goes" post-modern world, good and evil do not mean anything anymore. Then there is a whole crop of misguided psychologists who are ready to assure you that the only guilt you should feel is for feeling guilty in the first place! Is it any wonder that in the English language the word sin is now normally used to describe things that are delicious, attractive, fun, and highly desirable? That this darkness of the heart should be considered enlightenment only completes the inversion.

But there is hope for those who seek hope. No matter how corrupt we might have become, we can always make a U-turn. We can repent and seek forgiveness from our Beneficent and Merciful Creator Who is always ready to forgive those who turn to Him in sincerity. "O my Servants who have transgressed against their souls! Despair not of the Mercy of Allah. Verily, Allah forgives all sins: for He is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful" [az-Zumar 39:53]. Further a hadith declares: "When a person has repented from a sin, it is as if he had never committed that sin".

The Prophet Muhammad (saw) has taught us many words of repentance and it is good if we learn, understand, and use them. Of these one has been mentioned as Syed-ul-Istighfar (the master of forgiveness). A hadith explains its extraordinary significance: "If a believer says this with complete faith and sincerity in the morning and dies before that evening, he will enter paradise. If he says it during the night and dies before the morning, he will enter paradise." This powerful du'a is our daily pledge of allegiance. We will do well to memorize it in Arabic and never let a day or night go by without saying it with full consciousness:

"O Allah! You are my Lord. There is no God except You. You created me and I am Your slave. To the best of my ability, I will abide by my covenant and pledge to You. I seek Your protection from the evil of my own creation. I acknowledge Your favors to me and I admit my sins. So please forgive me for no one can forgive sins except You."

كَ بِنِعْمَتِكَ عَلَيَّ وَأَبُوءُ لَكَخَلَقْتَنِي وَأَنَا عَبْدُكَ وَأَنَا عَلَى عَهْدِكَ وَوَعْدِكَ مَا اسْتَطَعْتُ أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرٍّ مَا صَنَعْتُ أَبُوءُ لَا اللَّهُمَّ أَنْتَ رَبِّي لا إِلَهَ إِلا أَنْتَ

How to Eat More Fruits & Dates to Lose Weight

Fruits are generally low in calories and can help you lose weight.

When it comes to losing weight, fruits can help you manage your caloric intake. Fruits such as dates are low in calories and rich in fiber, allowing you to eat more without adding too many calories to your diet. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention notes that eating fruits, along with vegetables, whole grains, lean meats, nuts and beans, is a safe and healthful way to lose weight.

Replace candy and other processed condiments with dates. Date palm is a sweet fruit that is high in fiber, which can help you control hunger. One cup contains 12 grams of dietary fiber. It also contains protein and a plethora of vitamins and minerals. However, dates are very high in sugar, at about 66 grams of sugar per 100-gram serving. Limit the amount you eat and use dates as a substitute for junk foods in your diet to reduce your calorie intake.

Choose whole fruits rather than dried or juiced fruits. Dried fruits have the water content removed, while juiced fruits have the fiber removed. Both the fiber and high water content of fruits helps satiate you, which can help you eat less during the day.

Fill at least half your plate with fruits and vegetables for each meal in place of less-healthy side dishes, such as refined carbohydrates. Fruits are generally low in calories due to the high fluid content. Nutritious options include apricots, cranberries, cherries, grapefruit and peaches.

4

Replace high-fat desserts such as ice cream and cheesecake with a fruit salad. Fruits contain natural sugars and can make a sweet dessert without the high calories typically found in sweets. Natural sugars found in fruits, known as fructose, come with other nutrients such as fiber that can help prevent blood pressure spikes, while foods with artificial sugars do not. For example, a bunch of grapes contains about 87 calories, while a single ice cream cone with nuts and chocolate can contain about 340 calories.
